12/31/98	(Trustee) creditor calls for the month. Employees. My staff has stopped keeping track officially. They state to much hassle. Will just make estate aware that they continue to receive calls from employees primarily. Received a lot of calls this month, apparently because its end of year, asking when they are getting their checks, if they are going to get a W-2 for tax purposes. Ask them estimate of how many receive. Known calls for the month, 28.	2.10	n/c

1/25/99	(Trustee) 3 days 1/21, 1/22 & 1/25 misc. meetings w/ Kluding and her asst.; go back over records wrecked by FBI for Palmetto suit; put back in boxes.	14.00	n/c
1/26/99	(Trustee) Conf. w/ Kluding; review Palmetto demand reports and records.	0.25	n/c
1/27/99	* Trustee? (Attorney) Misc. t/c w/ office of US Attorney; now wants docs; agreement unilaterally changed again as to production. I am confident that estate will never have the documents or all of them again. Strategy. This might be fatal to estate's chances to administratively challenge withholding of $1.4mm in claims by Palmetto.	1.50	$187.50
1/28/99	(Attorney) Conf and strategy re: how to deal w. docs; I believe FBI and/or Palmetto "lost" doc; I need them; consider again asserting they should pay to copy. Research protective order authority.	1.25	$156.25
